

Women's Club of Chatham Conservation Department 2011-2012

MEETING SCHEDULE AND MEMBERSHIP LIST

Meetings are on the Fourth Monday of the month, September through April at 1:00 p.m.
No meetings in December or March.

Monday, September 26, 2011

Road Trip to Garden in the Woods of the New England Wild Flower Society located in Framingham, with lunch at the nearby Longfellow's Wayside Inn in Sudbury.

Host: Joanne Donoghue

Monday, October 24, 2011

The Chatham Community Garden. Savor fresh produce from your garden in a pot luck lunch at the home of Margaret Stenberg. Founders of the Chatham Community Garden, Mary Ellen Sussman and Heidi Quill, will join us for lunch and then conduct a tour and talk at the garden site on the progress and future for the garden after the first summer of operation. Noon.

Home of Margaret Stenberg

Monday, November 28, 2011

Conservation Lands, Trails, and Maps. Kristen Andres, Chatham's Conservation Agent, will give us an update on the most critical issues facing conservation lands and future protection of resources, current train status and maps of land holdings town wide.

Refreshments: Gerri Di Cristina

Chatham Community Center, Club Room

Monday, January 23, 2012

Animal Control in Chatham. Meg McDonough, Animal Warden, will update us on animal control issues impacting the wild critters and domestic pets in our town.

Refreshments: Joanna Schurmann

Home of Joanna Schurmann

Monday, February 27, 2012

Shifting Sands along our Coast. Ted Keon, Director of Coastal Resources for Chatham, will update us on the current status of shoals and beaches and the management options available to the town.

Refreshments: Suzanne Burley

Chatham Community Center Club Room

Monday, April 23, 2012

Conservation and Preservation Examples in Chatham. Lara Slifka, Assistant Conservation Agent and Environmental Technician for Chatham, will lead a walk through the verdant landscape of Sylvan Gardens off Rt. 28 in West Chatham. Then a short way down the road, Melissa Sanderson, Chief Operating Officer of the Cape Cod Commercial Hook Fishermen's Association, will lead a tour of the Captain Harding House, the award winning headquarters recently restored and renovated in West Chatham.

Refreshments: Carol Pacun and Ruth Tichenor

Conservation Department Members

Del Archibald	945-1513	Maureen Langille	945-8725
Martha Batchelder	945-0156	Barbara Lynyak	945-4477
Nancy Black	430-0092	Regina McDowell	945-1632
Suzanne Burley	945-4867	Janet McGuigan	430-5319
Marcia Burns	945-1646	Jan Mitchell	609-558-1405
Jacquie Cotter	945-1343	Sharon Oudemool	430-8184
Peggy Crespo	348-1938	Carol Pacun	945-1627
Abigail Doherty	237-3787	Joanna Schurmann	945-6494
Prudence Davie	348-1255	Sharyn Seasholtz	432-0622
Gerri Di Cristina	432-7198	Barbara Sifflard	945-2510
Joanne Donoghue	945-5957	Linda Smith	945-0905
Gloria Freeman	945-4175	Roseann Stephens	945-8752
Phyllis Freeman	945-0427	Margaret Stenberg	945-9301
Eileen Gibb	945-7335	Betsey Stevens	945-2858
Barbara Gibson	945-3633	Ruth Tichenor	945-7401
Barbara Goldrick	945-3007	Gail Tilton	945-9012
Linda Hennigan	945-2811	Anne Brown Vets	945-3788
Judith Kelley	945-5578

The Conservation Department presents programs with speakers who will share their knowledge and expertise on crucial conservation and preservation issues in Chatham, as well as issues that are pertinent to the entire Cape. We invite members of the Women's Club of Chatham to join us for any program and to join the department as a member. Contact Joanna Schurmann at 945-6594 or joannaschurmann@comcast.net.

